Absent Narratives is a book about the defining difference between medieval and modern stories. In chapters devoted to the major writers of the late medieval period - Chaucer, Gower, the Gawain - poet and Malory - it presents and then analyzes a set of unique and unnoticed phenomena in medieval

Project MUSE - Absent Narratives, Manuscript Textuality ...

Elizabeth Scala's book on the 'absent narratives' in late Middle English texts is an attempt to bring these frameworks and reading strategies to medieval texts. Her approach is informed both by poststructuralist (especially psychoanalytic) literary theory and manuscript studies, a productive mixture; but in the final analysis the book is tilted towards the theoretical pole.
